Exhibition of end-of-studies projects by ESDAP Catalonia students of the 2016-2017 academic year,

with interventions by Carla Flores, Carlos Garrido, Behnaz Rezaei and Berta Vallvé.

This exhibition articulates and relates the figure of the designer through his or her conceptual and formal responses with the aim of stimulating the spectator to reflect on values and solutions for society.

The selected projects share an interest in introducing reflection to issues of a social nature that use design's transformational capacity to recover and improve the everyday environment; but also to transfer to the designer the ability to become a mediator, broadening the dimension of the discipline of design in a contemporary, collaborative and critical conception.

The exhibition also contains a selection of final projects by students from the 2013-2017 degree course: Montserrat Aunós, Jorge Braun, Juana García, Leia Goiria, Anna Grau, Pilar da Pena, David Ramos and Neu Sociats.
