BARCELONA CITY COUNCIL

Barcelona is an ideal place for people from around the world to come and work, study, research, start up companies or simply embark on a new life project.

And we are building the future of this open and diverse city between us all: those of us born here, those of us who arrived here a while ago and those of us who are newcomers from around the world.

Which is why this year's Barcelona International Community Day comes with the slogan "You feel Barcelona, you make Barcelona".

The new edition of this international talent fair in the city is to be, for the ninth year running, the space where everyone who "feels and makes" Barcelona can rub shoulders with enterprises, associations, schools, clubs and participants including speakers, experts and hosts.

The result is a meeting point that enables attendees to make acquaintances, explore everything the city offers and create synergies while joining local and international talent to make an even better Barcelona between us all.

We encourage all of you, who have chosen Barcelona, to join in this truly special day for the city. Play an active role and take part in workshops, discussions, talks and spaces for learning and interacting with others.

We've got a date on 22 October!

PROGRAMME OF ACTIVITIES, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2022

ROOM 1

10.15 - 11.00 H.

My intercultural family

moderated by CASA ASIA

ROUND TABLE PERSONAL LANDING EN

SPEAKERS Aghiles Chelil, Healthcare Segment Global Services Business Manager, Schneider Electric / Shreyashee Nag, founder and director, Shreyashee Dance Company & Nupura International Centre for Dance and Music, and Host Ambassador of the Barcelona International Community Day / Hsiangchin Lee, Finance adviser.

MODERATOR Gaëlle Patin-Laloy, Senior Programme Officer, Diversity and Intercultural Programme, Casa Asia.

DESCRIPTION Barcelona is becoming increasingly multicultural. This diversity makes us richer and also allows us to open our minds, to become more creative and to understand different points of view. Nothing makes us stronger like a sense of community, nor more adaptable to change like embracing it. But diversity can also be a challenge for society, and even for some families. When our spouse or partner comes from a culture, tradition, religion or country that is different to our own, we may experience daily challenges and misunderstandings in the smallest things. We can learn how to avoid these by listening to the experiences of those who live in intercultural families

11.15 - 11.45 H.

What insurance do i need to live in Barcelona? Requirements explained in first person

by MAPFRE

CAPSULE PERSONAL LANDING EN

SPEAKER Camila Cabrera, Delegate at MAPFRE Via Augusta Office.

DESCRIPTION When you arrive in Barcelona from another country, as well as knowing your legal obligations, you should also understand the local insurance system, to make your life as comfortable as possible. In this session, explained in first person by an expat, we will answer all your doubts on the subject so you have all the time in the world to enjoy the city.

12.00 - 12.45 H.

Digital Hubs in Barcelona: International talent wanted

moderated by Barcelona Digital Talent

ROUND TABLE WORK AND BUSINESS EN

SPEAKERS Alaitz Blanquer, HR Director Tech, ManoMano / Alexander Press, Head of Digital - Factory 4.0 & Industrial Collaborative Ecosystem, Sanofi / Eran Vaisman, Group Product Manager, Ocado Technologies.

MODERATOR Jordi Arrufí, Director of the Digital Talent Program, Mobile World Capital Barcelona.

DESCRIPTION Barcelona, as one of the main digital ecosystems in Europe, is home to the main hubs for companies developing new services and technologies for the rest of the world. The great news for expats is that these hubs generate quality jobs and look for international profiles residing here. Discover which companies and projects are being developed from Barcelona and how to form part of this new digital revolution.

13.00 - 13.45 H.

Which CV model best suits me?

by Barcelona Activa

WORKSHOP WORK AND BUSINESS EN

WORKSHOP COORDINATOR Arnau Gasull Fernández, Consultant, trainer and coach, Barcelona Activa.

DESCRIPTION People looking for a job often fail to consider the type of CV that best suits their situation and professional goal, and end up choosing a model that doesn't benefit them. It is very important for someone looking for a job to understand their CV options to increase their chances of participating in the selection process.

14.00 - 14.45 H.

Prepare and practise an elevator pitch for your CV

by Barcelona Activa

WORKSHOP COORDINATOR Arnau Gasull Fernández, Consultant, trainer and coach, Barcelona Activa.

DESCRIPTION We will give those seeking a new professional opportunity the keys to explaining their CV in a succinct, structured and effective way, in under one minute. Knowing what an Elevator Pitch is and how to express one, as well as being able to communicate with their own network of contacts, they will be able to present themselves successfully at professional events, fairs, conferences, course, etc., where there is little time to interact with key contacts.

15.00 - 15.30 H.

How does education work in Barcelona? Guide for expat parents

by My Barcelona School

CAPSULE PERSONAL LANDING EN

SPEAKERS Anya van der Drift, Director and Founder, My Barcelona School / Lucía Peralta, coordinator, Independent Privates Schools of Catalonia (EPIC).

DESCRIPTION Barcelona is a creative, open, lively and upbeat city. Its education system demonstrates and transmits these values perfectly. There are many quality options, both in the public education system and in private as well as the charter schools. Understanding the educational offer will help international families to find the best options for their children.

15.45 - 16.15 H.

Get around the city thanks to SMOU

by Barcelona Serveis Municipals (B:SM)

CAPSULE PERSONAL LANDING ES

SPEAKER Laia Bou, Engineer at Urban Mobility Solutions Unit, Barcelona Serveis Municipals (B:SM).

DESCRIPTION Did you know that SMOU is the mobility app for Barcelona? Come to this discussion to find out the different options, as well as the four main services: Bicing, Parking meter, Parking via app and "Endolla Barcelona". You will find out how to get the most out of the app and enjoy all the advantages of the different mobility services in one app.

16.30 - 17.15 H.

Health comes first! Understand the healthcare system in Barcelona moderated by the Hospital Clínic

ROUND TABLE PERSONAL LANDING ES

SPEAKERS Camila Cabrera, Delegate at MAPFRE Via Augusta Office / Madeleine Smit, Founder and CEO, Turó Park Clínic / Carlos Loran, General Manager, Barnaclínic.

MODERATOR Marta Barahona, Head of the Citizen's Services Area, Hospital Clínic.

DESCRIPTION The healthcare model in Barcelona is mixed. It combines public, part-funded and private centres. Understanding the difference between them can be complicated when arriving from another country. This session will explain the different options, the existing covers and insurances and, above all, why Barcelona is considered a world-leading centre of medical excellence.

17.30 - 18.00 H.

Experience Barcelona by bike: The best routes

by Bicicleta Club de Catalunya (BACC)

CAPSULE ENJOY BARCELONA EN

SPEAKER Marta Casar, Member of the Board of Directors, BACC (Bike Club of Catalonia).

DESCRIPTION Barcelona is admired internationally for its beauty. The sea, the sky and the mountain join hands in just a few square kilometres. Thankfully, the city is becoming friendlier to those who want to enjoy it by bike. Whether on your own bike or a rental, you cannot miss the best routes and points of interest to cycle around in your new city.

ROOM 2

10.15 - 10.45 H.

Do you want to freelance? An essential guide to doing it correctly

by Integra Advisers

CAPSULE WORK AND BUSINESS EN

SPEAKER Luz Villota, Managing Director, Integra Advisers.

DESCRIPTION Whether you have your own business or if you have contracts to provide a service, you should know that freelancing is not just carrying out a specific activity, you also take on fiscal, accounting, legal and social security responsibilities. In this session, we will share the essential steps and tricks to doing it correctly from the beginning.

11.00 - 11.30 H.

Barcelona: “Wine Tourism Destination”

by the Diputació de Barcelona

CAPSULE ENJOY BARCELONA EN

SPEAKER Najat Tort González, Technical Manager in the Marketing Tourist Office, Diputació de Barcelona.

DESCRIPTION Very close to the city, in the areas surrounding Barcelona, there are three Official Wine Appellations: Alella, Penedès and Pla de Bages. These places, as well as producing fine wines, offer a wide variety of wine tourism activities, such as visits to wine cellars, activities in vineyards, wine tasting, and much more. In this session we will provide information on all plans, routes and activities linked to wine that can be enjoyed at weekends in the areas surrounding Barcelona. Come and discover Barcelona as a Wine Tourism Destination!

11.45 - 12.30 H.

Experiences of international entrepreneurs who have chosen Barcelona

by Barcelona Global

ROUND TABLE WORK AND BUSINESS EN

SPEAKERS Neema Balolebwami Nelly, Founder, EMEA Venture Builder and Host Ambassador of the Barcelona International Community Day / Svetlana Velikanova, Founder and CEO, Harbour Space University.

MODERATOR Eileen Truax, Mexican journalist.

DESCRIPTION Barcelona has managed to combine two of its core values: respect for diversity and entrepreneurship. We hope to see more success stories of people creating their own projects in multiple fields. In this session, we will find out how international women entrepreneurs have paved the way with their proposals, as well as the keys to their growth.

12.45 - 13.15 H.

Everything you need to know about renting a flat in Barcelona

by INSPIRE Property Experts

CAPSULE PERSONAL LANDING EN

SPEAKER Raf Jacobs, Founder and CEO, INSPIRE Property Experts.

DESCRIPTION Looking for a flat to rent in Barcelona can be a challenge. Every country has its own rules and customs and the offer of rental flats is limited in a city like Barcelona. In this session we will give you tips on how to find the perfect flat, what documentation you need when renting and what your rights and obligations are as a tenant.

13.30 - 14.15 H.

(Re)Discovering Gaudí

by Amilcar Vargas

ROUND TABLE ENJOY BARCELONA EN

SPEAKERS Emrah Ulucakar, Regional Human Resources Director and Business Partner, Bunge and Host Ambassador of the Barcelona International Community Day / Guillem Mundet Genís, Director, Palau Güell / Eloi Morte, Head of Marketing and Sales, Fundació Catalunya La Pedrera.

MODERATOR Amilcar Vargas, World Heritage Director, Casa Batlló and Host Ambassador of the Barcelona International Community Day.

DESCRIPTION This round table proposes a new approach to the works of Gaudí as an element to attracting international talent that visits, and then stays in Barcelona. The genius of Gaudí is an inspiration for those who choose Barcelona as the city to develop their professional career.

14.30 - 15.15 H.

Tips for following the city's cultural calendar and not die trying moderated by EnPositivo.com

India in BCN: A tour through barcelona's asian side

by Casa Asia and CultRuta

GUIDED ROUTE ENJOY BARCELONA EN

MEETING POINT by the submarine in the Garden of the Maritime Museum at 15:50.

COORDINATOR Deepti Golani, Barcelona native of Indian origin, economist and educator at Casa Asia

DIRECTIONS Along the route, you will visit a Gurdwara (the Sikh temple in the Raval district). Visitors must take their shoes off, wash their feet and hands and cover their head and arms. It is a good idea to bring a shawl or large scarf.

DESCRIPTION Barcelona is becoming increasingly multicultural, with over 60,000 of its inhabitants born in Asia. India in BCN is a cultural route offered jointly by Casa Asia and Cultruta to get to know the history of Indian immigration to Barcelona and the way in which the Indian diaspora contributes to the current cultural wealth that Barcelona enjoys as such a diverse city.

We will take a tour on foot, visiting some of the streets that have welcomed these folks, discovering different businesses and even a Sikh temple in the Old City, where many people from the subcontinent reside. As well as the India in Barcelona route, the two institutions organise other routes such as the China in BCN, Pakistan in BCN, Pakistani Ramadan nights in BCN, the lives of young Filipinos in the city, etc.

HOST AMBASSADORS

We've now reached the ninth edition of Barcelona International Community Day, and, as is now the tradition, our dear hosts will be taking part in it, accompanying use throughout the day.

They are six people who will be welcoming you to the city and who wish to share their experiences with you, as ex pats in the city, advising and guiding you so you feel at home.

These host ambassadors are Shreyasee Nag (India), Amilcar Vargas (Mexico), Bibiana Cunningham (Slovakia), Victor Horcasitas (USA), Neema Balolebwami Nelly (Democratic Republic of the Congo) and Emrah Ulucakar (Turkey).

They will be acting as a reference point, sharing with you their experiences, stories, personal learning and past and future projects in what is now their new home, Barcelona.

You can see videos of interviews with the hosts on the website:

 www.barcelona.cat/internationalcommunityday

#BarcelonalCD

SHREYASHEE NAG

INDIA

DANCER, CHOREOGRAPHER AND CULTURAL ENTREPRENEUR, OWNER OF AN INDIAN CLASSICAL DANCE SCHOOL IN BARCELONA AND HER OWN DANCE COMPANY

When you perform you are offering part of your culture to the city. What has Barcelona given you?

Barcelona is teaching me a lot. It's transforming my dance. The seed of art has always been with me since I was trained in dance, but Barcelona has definitely been the gardener for that seed. The city really helps you, driving you to flourish in art and culture.

What surprises you most about Barcelona?

What surprises me most about the city is its size; so compact that it allows you to enjoy the sea and the mountains in a short space of time.

What social aspect of Barcelona would you highlight?

Integration is a major aspect for the city, considering the diversity of its population, with people from all over the world.

That's why Barcelona is obviously a fantastic place to live.

AMILCAR VARGAS

MEXICO

DIRECTOR OF CASA BATLLÓ WORLD HERITAGE

In your opinion, what makes Barcelona attract international talent?

In terms of attracting talent, I think Barcelona has five very important things: the first is its great cultural diversity; the second, its spectacular gastronomy; the third, numerous social meeting spaces; the fourth, a large number of people from elsewhere who have put down roots here; and fifth, a privileged Mediterranean climate.

Personally, how would you class your life in Barcelona?

In terms of living and working in Barcelona, my level of satisfaction is very high.

It's a privilege to live in a city like this, so cosmopolitan and diverse; and also to work in an exceptional cultural and heritage environment at world level.

How would describe the people of Barcelona?

I think the people of Barcelona are highly diverse and welcoming, and thanks to the great diversity of the city's local population any foreigner or people from other places can find that people from Barcelona have real empathy.

BIBIANA CUNNINGHAM

SLOVAKIA

EXECUTIVE FOUNDER OF BUSINESSCURE

Why type of person do you think Barcelona attracts?

The city wants to attract people from other places who have something to offer and who want to develop something, develop ideas, contribute to the city and improve it.

Do you think Barcelona is a good place to come with the family?

Barcelona is the perfect place to have a family, and there's always a huge variety of activities for families and children.

The food is fantastic, and you always have the chance to find the place, the school, or exactly what you need.

There's everything you want here, really.

How would you define Barcelona in one sentence?

I would class Barcelona as unikatný and rozmanitý, which mean unique and diverse.

VICTOR HORCASITAS

UNITED STATES

CEO AND EDITOR OF BARCELONA METROPOLITAN; CHAIR OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF BARCELONA

You came to Barcelona some years ago. Did you plan to stay so long?

I first arrived in Barcelona in 1995. At that time I planned to stay for two years, and I still haven't left because Barcelona has a pull on me.

From an ex-pat point of view, what is life like in Barcelona?

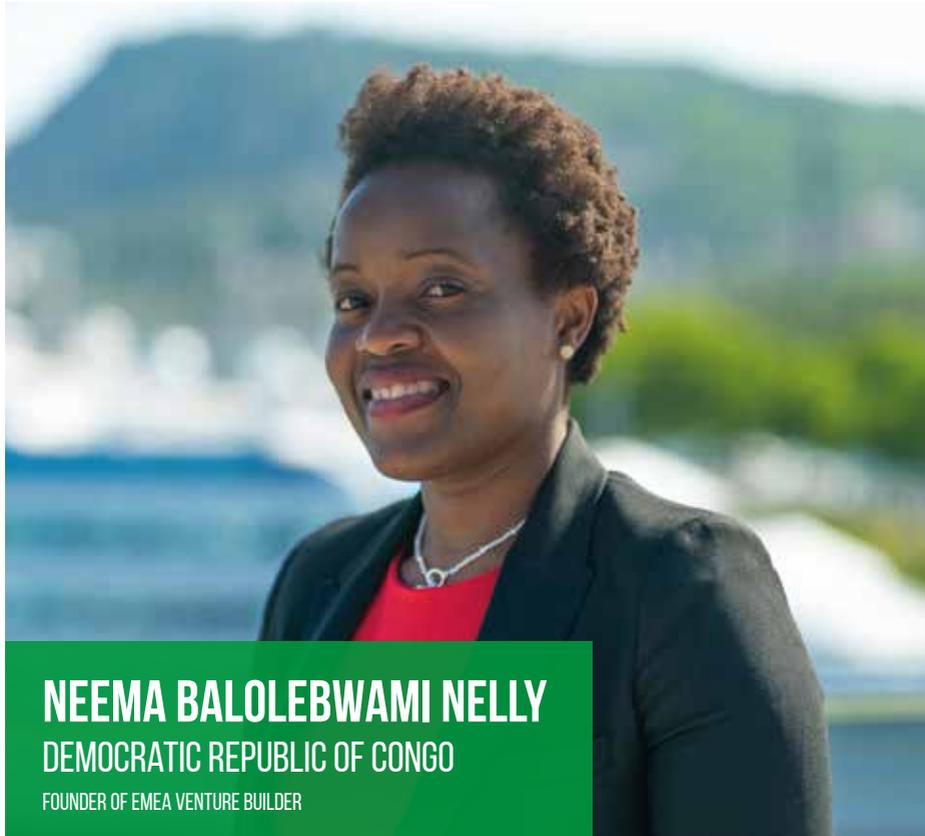

I think Barcelona is a fantastic place to live as an ex-pat. You can reach any place in Europe in two or three hours and you can always come home and enjoy a wonderful climate.

Do you think you'll ever end up going back to your country?

I see myself living in Alaska, Africa or Asia. But I think if I ever did that, I'd end up coming back here, living in Gràcia or Esquerra de l'Eixample.

It's difficult to be away from the climate, the food, the people.

I love Barcelona.

NEEMA BALOLEBWAMI NELLY

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF CONGO

FOUNDER OF EMEA VENTURE BUILDER

What advantages do you think Barcelona offers women entrepreneurs like you?

As a foreign woman, starting a new business in Barcelona is an opportunity.

At the start of my career I was under a lot of pressure from the competition, but what has helped me is seeing how Barcelona promotes female talent, providing support, resources and mentoring.

How do you enjoy the city in your free time?

During my free time I like to walk along the sea shore and listen to music. My favourite group is Blumut.

I like drinking vermouth and eating tapas in a bar.

What advice would you give to newcomers in Barcelona?

The practical advice for somebody just arriving in Barcelona is to take part in local events, in networking activities, and to learn the local languages, Catalan and Spanish.

People in Barcelona are friendly, open-minded and very hard-working.

EMRAH ULUCAKAR

TURKEY

REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF HUMAN RESOURCES AND BUSINESS PARTNER WITH BUNGE

What made you choose Barcelona to pursue your career?

I had various options when it came to choosing a city to work in. I deliberately chose Barcelona because I like living in the city.

What do you like to do when you're not working?

Photography is a hobby of mine, and has been for a long time.

Catalonia is a fantastic place to see different types of nature, combined with very old villages. And I love visiting villages by motorbike.

What do you think about the atmosphere in the city in general?

There's huge cultural diversity in Barcelona, and you can find people with very different origins living and working here.

I love the climate here. It's a great combination because when the weather's good it's like everyone's got more energy. That energy rubs off on the others around you.
