We recommend buying your ticket online from our website. You will avoid queues and long waiting, and enjoy direct access to the exhibition rooms. In addition, this will help us to better control room capacity. Reservations can only be made in the same week of your visit. If you have any queries, please send a message to reservesmeb@bcn.cat or call 932562300.

On particularly busy times, such as Sunday afternoons, the first Sundays of the month, and during free-admission periods, we highly encourage you to buy your ticket online.

DURING YOUR VISIT

Safe space

In order to make the museum a safe space and guarantee the safety of visitors and staff, the following special safety measures have been adopted:

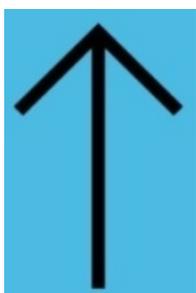

- The museum spaces are cleaned more frequently than usual, especially items that are within reach of visitors.
- Room information sheets, interactive panels, audio guides and tactile items and resources have all been removed.
- All information sheets have been withdrawn. You can find the information on the museum's website.
- We have set up various hygiene points with disinfectant gel for visitors and staff.
- We have various information points and signposting to remind visitors about the measures they should follow to ensure a safe visit.

In order to maintain these measures and to ensure a safe visit for everyone, we REMIND YOU AND RECOMMEND that:

- You should wear a face mask throughout your visit.

- Keep to the recommended visitor's circuit.

- Maintain a safety distance of 1.5 metres from other visitors throughout the museum's route and in other areas, and avoid forming groups.

- Keep in mind the visitor capacity in all galleries and other areas of the museum.

- Use the lift as little as possible. Use it one person at a time, preferably for going up.

- Disinfect your hands with the gel provided at the museum's entrance.

- Avoid touching display cases and information panels.

- When buying tickets and other items in the shop, please try to pay by card.
- Please follow the information and recommendations given by customer-service personnel.
