Route from the bus stop to the museum

Block 1A. Route

Get off the bus and walk forwards for approximately one metre until you come to a wall.

Note: This bus stop does not have a shelter, just a metal post.

On reaching the wall, turn 90 degrees to your right.

Continue forwards with the wall to your left and you'll start to walk down a slight slope.

A few metres further on, you come to a lamp post on your left. Pass it on the right hand side and continue walking, using the wall to your left as a reference.

After a few metres, there is a second lamp post on the left, which you also pass on the right hand side.

After you have passed the second lamp post, continue straight on with the wall to your left, and after approximately eight metres you will note the downward slope becoming steeper.

At this point, turn 90 degrees to your right.

Continue forwards for one metre, until you come to the dropped kerb at the crossing.

Note: You are crossing Passeig de Santa Madrona.

Note: Take care. This is a two-way street with no traffic lights.

After crossing, go up the dropped kerb and walk straight on for approximately one metre until you come to a tree pit to your right.

When you come to the tree, pass it and continue straight on, going down a slight slope.

After leaving the tree behind you, immediately to your right there is a very small open space, followed by a parterre with plants also to your right.

Carry on down the slope, guided by the parterre on your right, until the parterre comes to an end.

When the parterre ends, turn clockwise to 1 o'clock.

Walk straight on for approximately five metres, without any reference points, until you come to the window of the Museum of Ethnology and World Cultures.

Now turn 90 degrees to the left and walk forwards using the window on your right as a reference.

When the window ends, turn 90 degrees to your right.

Now go straight on for approximately one metre, keeping the window to your right.

When the window ends, turn 90 degrees to your right.

Take a few steps straight on, with no reference points.

At this juncture, you are entering the Museum of Ethnology and World Cultures.

Block 1B. Route

Get off the bus and walk straight forwards for approximately one metre.

You will come to a plinth and a parterre.

Note: This bus stop does not have a shelter, just a metal post.

When you come to the plinth, turn 90 degrees to your left.

Go straight on and downwards with the plinth and parterre on your right.

When the plinth ends, turn 90 degrees to your right.

Continue forwards and down in a straight line, with the plinth and the parterre on your right once again.

When the plinth ends turn 90 degrees to your right.

After turning, you immediately come to a tree pit on your right side.

When you come to the tree, pass it and continue straight on, going down a slight slope.
